General instructions for completing the initial application form and accompanying documents.

BEFORE PRODUCTION:

Please note: The application process described below, the forms and their accompanying instructions are consistent with the San Francisco City and County Administrative Code section 57.8, rules governing the administration of the tax rebate. However, should anything in the form or instructions be inconsistent with the Administrative Code section 57.8, Administrative Code section 57.8 will prevail. For a copy of the City & County of San Francisco Administrative Code, please click here.

Initial Application: How to Apply

Productions applying for the Scene in San Francisco Film Rebate Program will first need to file an initial application, which consists of the following documents:

Each of the forms below is available for download as a PDF document and requires the free Acrobat Reader for viewing and completion.

1. FORM A – Initial Application for Scene in San Francisco Rebate and accompanying instructions. A copy of this application needs to be submitted to the San Francisco Film Office. Click here for the application and instructions \(word\).
2. Project Budget – The most current version of the project budget, below-the-line expenses only. This is a mandatory part of the application process and must be submitted with the Initial Application in order for the application to be complete.
3. Project Script – Please submit along with Initial Application.
4. Sunshine Letter (Optional) – To protect confidentiality of private information and trade secrets, you may submit a letter along with the application requesting that application information be withheld from disclosure, subject to applicable laws.

Applications for a refund of City fees and taxes under the Scene in San Francisco Rebate Program are public records under the provisions of the California Public Records Act and the City's Sunshine Ordinance. The City is therefore required to disclose information contained in the applications upon request from a member of the public unless specific exemptions contained in those laws apply. If you believe that portions of your application are, or should be, exempt from disclosure, please submit with your application a letter identifying the confidential information and the basis for your conclusion that the City may not, or need not, disclose the information to the public.

The City reserves the right to determine whether the information identified may be withheld from disclosure under applicable public record laws. The City will notify you of any request from the public for disclosure of the identified information, and will notify you of the City's determination whether to disclose the requested information.

These combined documents are the initial application, which leads to conditional approval of the project for the Scene in San Francisco Film Rebate Program administered by the City & County of San Francisco. Receipt of a certificate of conditional eligibility does not guarantee availability of the credit, which is dependent on the final budget meeting the requirements of the credit.

When to apply:

Applications must be submitted at least forty-five (45) days prior to the start of principal photography and ongoing photography but not more than one (1) year prior to the start of principal photography. Applications submitted less than forty-five (45) days prior to the scheduled start of principal photography must be approved by the Executive Director.

Where to apply:

Please submit the completed FORM A, Project Budget and Script in hardcopy. Please submit to:

San Francisco Film Commission Office
City Hall, Room 473
San Francisco, CA 94102
(415) 554-6241 office (415) 554-6503 fax
WWW.FILMSF.ORG

Next Steps: What happens after you submit the Initial Application?

- 1. Interview – You must call the San Francisco Film Office (415) 554-6241 to schedule an appointment to discuss the application. This meeting must be attended by a producer and either the line producer, unit production manager, production accountant or their designee, subject to approval of the San Francisco Film Office.
- 2. Approval – If the initial application is approved, the San Francisco Film Office shall issue a certificate of conditional eligibility to the authorized applicant. The San Francisco Film Office shall provide a copy of such certificate to the San Francisco Controllers Office. If the initial application is disapproved, the San Francisco Film Office shall provide the applicant with a notice of disapproval, which shall state the reasons therefore. Such disapproval shall be a rejection of the applicant’s initial application. An authorized applicant that disagrees with the disapproval or the amount of the credit may appeal pursuant to the process set forth in the regulations of the Scene in San Francisco Film Rebate Program. Click here for a copy of the appeals process \(pdf\).

Receipt of the certificate of the conditional eligibility does not guarantee availability of the rebate or amount of the rebate, which is dependent on the final budget meeting the requirements of the credit. Please note that actual receipt of the Scene in San Francisco Film Rebate is subject to availability of City funds for the program.

- 3. Prior to the Start of Principal and Ongoing Photography – If the Initial Application is approved, the production will be required to supply the following:

Next Steps: What happens after you submit this Final Application?

1. Approval – The San Francisco Film Commission will confirm via e-mail or U.S. Mail that the application, forms and supporting documents are complete. Upon its verification, the Film Commission will forward the Scene in San Francisco rebate package to the City Controller for payment within thirty (30) days. A delay in payment may occur if information required on reimbursement forms is missing or is unsupported. If the final application is disapproved, the San Francisco Film Office shall provide the applicant with a notice of disapproval, which shall state the reasons therefore. Such disapproval shall be a rejection of the applicant's final application. An authorized applicant that disagrees with the disapproval or the amount of the credit may appeal pursuant to the process as set forth in the regulations of the Scene in San Francisco Film Rebate Program.

2. Record Retention – Each authorized and approved applicant must maintain records, in paper or electronic form, of any qualified production costs used to calculate its potential or actual benefit(s) under this program for a minimum of three (3) years from the date of filing the final application. The San Francisco Film Office shall have the right to request such records upon reasonable notice.
